Article 90 To effectively safeguard the interests of public shareholders, the Company may, if conditions permit, provide a network voting system for domestic shareholders to vote at general meetings. The Company shall provide a network voting platform for domestic shareholders to vote in relation to the matters set out in Article 79.

If a network voting platform is provided for domestic shareholders to vote at general meeting, all domestic shareholders whose names appeared in the register of the Company at the date of record of shareholders for the meeting are all entitled to vote via the network, provided that only one of the voting methods either in person, through the network or other ways shall be selected for the same shares.

Network voting for domestic shareholders at general meeting shall be implemented in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and provisions.

Article 91 The Board, independent directors and eligible shareholders are entitled to solicit proxy from shareholders publicly. While soliciting proxy of shareholders, sufficient disclosure of information such as the specific voting preference shall be made to the shareholders from whom proxy is being solicited. No consideration or other form of actual consideration shall be involved in the solicitation of proxy from shareholders. The Company shall not impose any limitation related to the minimum shareholding ratio on the solicitation of proxy.

Article 92 Resolutions of the general meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of a general meeting shall be passed by half or more of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution of a general meeting shall be passed by two-thirds or more of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 93 For the purpose of voting at a general meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) exercises his/her voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying voting rights represented by him. Each share has one vote.

Where material issues considered at a general meeting affect the interests of minority investors, the votes of minority investors shall be counted separately. The results of the separate votes shall be disclosed publicly in a timely manner.

No voting rights shall attach to the Company shares held by the Company, and such shares shall not be counted among the total number of shares with voting rights present at a general meeting.

Article 94 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting is decided on a show of hands unless before or after the show of hands a poll is demanded by:

- (1) the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) at least two shareholders with voting rights or the proxies thereof;
- (3) one or more shareholders (including proxy) who, individually or together, hold an aggregate of more than 10% (inclusive) of shares carrying voting rights at such meeting.

Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the general meeting that a resolution of the general meeting has been carried or not carried according to the result of the show of hands and an entry to that effect made in the minute book shall be final and conclusive evidence of the fact without the need of stating any proof of the votes for or against such resolution so passed or the ratio thereof.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes it.

Article 95 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman directs and the meeting may continue to transact other matters. The result of such poll are deemed as a resolution passed at such meeting.

Article 96 On a poll, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not use all his votes or cast all the votes in the same way.

Article 97 In the case of an equality of votes, whether a show of hands or a poll, the chairman of the meeting is entitled to a second vote.

Article 98 The following matters require the approval of an ordinary resolution at a general meeting:

- (1) the working reports of the Board and the supervisory committee;
- (2) the plan for distribution of profits and the plan for making up losses prepared by the Board;

- (3) the removal of the members of the Board and the supervisory committee, their remuneration and method of payment;
- (4) annual financial budgets and statements of final accounts, balance sheet, income statement and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) the provision by the Company of any security with an amount of over 10% of the net asset in the consolidated accounting statement for the latest accounting year in respect of the secured object which falls into the Company's standards;
- (6) any matters not otherwise required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association to be passed by special resolutions.

Article 99 The following matters shall be approved by passing of special resolution at the general meeting of shareholders:

- (1) increase or reduction of the Company's capital, issue of any type of shares, options and other similar types of securities;
- (2) issue of the Company's bonds;
- (3) separation, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendment to these Articles of Association;
- (5) purchase or sale of material assets by the Company within one year, or a guarantee amount exceeding 30% of the total assets in the most recent audit period of the Company;
- (6) share incentive scheme;
- (7) other matters as stipulated by laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, and/or matters deemed by the general meeting by ordinary resolution to impose material effect on the Company and necessary for passing by special resolution.

Article 100 Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, the implementation or proposal of the following matters are subject to and conditional upon approval at general meeting of more than half of the voting rights casted by public shareholders:

- (i) issue of additional new shares to the public, issue of convertible debentures, share placement to existing shareholders (save for shares to be fully subscribed in cash by the ultimate controlling shareholder pursuant to undertaking made prior to the meeting);
- (ii) material asset restructuring of the Company, acquisition, total consideration of which is 20% or more of the audited net book value of the assets acquired;

- (iii) repayment of debts due to the Company by a shareholder by way of its equity interest in the Company;
- (iv) proposed overseas listing of a subsidiary of material significance to the Company; and
- (v) matter with significant impact on the interests of public shareholders in the course of the Company's operation.

In the announcement of the resolutions passed in respect of any of the abovementioned matters at general meeting, the Company shall set out the number of public shareholders that vote at the meeting, the total number of shares held by them, the percentage in the Company's shares held by the public and the voting result. The shareholdings and the votes casted by the top 10 public shareholders should also be disclosed.

In convening a general meeting to consider any of the above-mentioned matters, the Company shall provide domestic shareholders with voting by network voting platform.

Article 101 Where any of the circumstances provided in Article 93 occurs, subsequent to the notice of the general meeting of shareholders, the Company shall give another notice of general meeting within three days after the date of equity registration

Article 102 In the event that the shareholders or the Supervisory Committee request to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders, they shall observe the procedures as follows:

- (1) Two or more shareholders or the Supervisory Committee holding a total of more than 10% (comprising 10%) voting shares in the meeting proposed to be convened may request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders by signing one or a number of copies of written request with specified agenda of the proposed meeting and lodging them with the Board. Upon receipt of the aforesaid written request, the Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders as soon as possible. The foresaid number of voting shares is calculated in accordance with the date on which the shareholders make the written request.
- (2) If the Board does not serve any notice convening such meeting within 30 days upon receipt of the aforesaid written request, the shareholders or Supervisory Committee lodging the request may convene the meeting within 4 months following the date of receipt of the request by the Board. The convening procedure shall be as similar as possible to that of the general meetings convened by the Board.

The reasonable cost incurred in convening and holding such meeting by the shareholders or the Supervisory Committee on their own by reason of not holding it by the Board upon the aforesaid request shall be borne by the Company and deducted from the payables of the Company to the negligent director(s) so involved.

Article 103 Where matters relating to connected transactions are deliberated at the general meeting of shareholders, the connected shareholders should not participate in the voting, and the shares carrying the voting rights they represent shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes. The announcement of resolutions of the general meeting should fully disclose the voting status of the non-connected shareholders.

Article 104 The name list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be submitted by way of proposal to the general meeting for voting.

During voting at the general meeting on election of directors and supervisors, cumulative voting system may be implemented in accordance with the stipulations of these Articles of Association or the resolutions of the general meeting.

The “cumulative voting system” as in the foregoing means that each share has the number of voting right identical to the number of directors or supervisors to be elected, and the voting right owned by the shareholders may be cumulatively used when the general meeting elects the directors or supervisors. The Board shall announce to the shareholders the resume and basic information of the candidates for directors or supervisors.

Article 105 Save for the cumulative voting system, the general meeting of shareholders shall vote on all proposals item by item, and shall vote on the proposals on in time sequence when various proposals are put forward for a single matter. Unless the general meeting of shareholders is suspended or no resolution can be passed due to force majeure or any other special reasons, the general meeting shall not set aside or cast no vote on the proposals.

Article 106 The resolutions of the general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner, and the announcement shall indicate the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of their shares and the proportion in the total shares carrying the voting rights of the Company, the voting method, the voting results of carrying the voting rights each proposal and detailed information of each resolution passed.

Article 107 If a proposal is not passed or the general meeting of shareholders changes the resolutions of any previous general meeting, a special reminder shall be given in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 108 Where a proposal on election of relevant directors or supervisors is passed at the general meeting of shareholders, and the date the newly appointed directors or supervisors enter on their offices shall be the date on which the general meeting concluded.

Article 109 Where the general meeting of shareholders passes the proposal on cash dividends, bonus shares or conversion of capital reserves into share capital, the Company shall implement specific scheme within two months upon the general meeting is concluded.

Article 110 A general meeting shall be convened and presided by the chairman of the Board. Where the chairman of the Board is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the general meeting shall be convened and presided by the vice chairman. Failing him, the Board may designate one of the directors of the Company to convene and preside such meeting on his behalf. Where no chairman has been designated, the shareholders present may elect one of their members to act as the chairman. If for any reason no chairman is elected by the shareholders, the shareholder (or proxy present) holding the majority of shares carrying the right to vote shall preside the meeting.

Article 111 During the general meeting of shareholders, all directors and the secretary of the board of directors should attend the meeting, the managers and other senior management personnel shall also be present at the meeting.

The directors, supervisors, senior management personnel shall provide explanation and clarification to the inquiries and suggestions raised by the shareholders at the general meeting.

Article 112 The Company shall formulate rules of proceedings of the general meeting of the shareholders to specify in details the convening and voting procedures of the general meeting, including notice, registration, deliberation of proposal, votes, vote counting, announcement of voting results, formation of resolutions, minutes and the signatures thereon, announcement, as well as the principles of authorization by the general meeting to the Board, the contents of such authorization shall be expressly specified.

Article 113 At the annual general meeting, the board of directors and the supervisory committee shall report their respective work of the previous year to the general meeting of shareholders, and each independent director shall also make his duty report correspondingly.

Article 114 The chairman of the general meeting shall, before voting, announce the number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting as well as the total number of their voting shares carrying the voting shares, and the number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting and the total number of their shares shall be subject to the registration of the general meeting.

The chairman shall decide whether a resolution of the general meeting should be passed, and such decision shall be final and be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 115 If the chairman of the general meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put to the vote at the meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting fails to have the votes counted, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and objects to the result declared by the chairman of the meeting may demand a vote count immediately after the declaration of the result, and the chairman shall have the votes counted forthwith.

Article 116 The method of vote counting by the general meeting and the vote counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes together with the valid information such as the attendance register of the attending shareholders and the power of attorney of their proxies, the votes cast by way of internet and by other means shall be kept at the legal address of the Company for a period of 10 years.

Article 117 The chairman shall guarantee the truth, accuracy and completeness of the minutes of the meeting. The directors, supervisors, secretary to the Board, convener or their representative, chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. The minutes shall contain the following:

- (1) the time, venue, agenda of the meeting, and the name of the convener;
- (2) the name of the chairman of the meeting, the directors, supervisors, the secretary to the Board, managers and other senior management personnel attending or being present at the general meeting;

- (4) the process of deliberation of each proposal, the main points of speeches and the voting results (including the votes on each resolution by domestic shareholders, foreign shareholders, holders of tradable shares and holders of non-tradable shares);
- (5) the inquiries or suggestions of the shareholders as well as the corresponding replies or explanations;
- (6) the name of legal counsel, vote counters, and supervisors; and
- (7) other contents which shall be contained in the records of the meeting as prescribed by these Articles of Association.

Article 118 A shareholder is entitled to inspect the copies of minutes free of charge during office hours of the Company. If a shareholder demands from the Company a copy of such minutes, the Company shall send to him/her the copy within 7 days after having received a reasonable charge.

Article 119 The convener shall ensure that the continuity of the general meeting of shareholders until the final resolution is formed. Where the general meeting of Shareholders is suspended or no resolution can be made due to force majeure or any other special reasons, necessary measures shall be taken to resume or directly terminate the general meeting, and an announcement shall be made in a timely manner. Meanwhile, the convener shall report this to the branch CSRC at the place where the Company is located and the stock exchange.

Article 120 Matters such the convening and voting procedures of the general meeting and the deliberation of proposal, including notice, registration, deliberation of proposal, votes, vote counting, announcement of voting results, formation of resolutions, minutes and the signatures thereon, announcement, as well as the principles of delegation by the general meeting to the Board, the contents of such delegation, and other matters which have not been stipulated by these Articles of Association, shall be performed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Rules of Proceedings of the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company.

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for the Voting by Different Classes of Shareholders

Article 121 Shareholders of different classes of shares are classified as class shareholders. Class shareholders have the rights and obligations pursuant to the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 122 Variations or abrogation of the rights conferred on a class of shareholders shall be approved by special resolution passed at general meeting and approved by holders of shares of that class at a class meeting convened in accordance with Articles 91 to 95.

Article 123 The followings are considered as a variation or abrogation of the rights of class shareholders:

- (1) to increase or reduce the number of shares in that class of shares or to increase or reduce the number of shares in a class of shares which have rights on voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to that class of shares;
- (2) to exchange all or a portion of that class of shares for shares of another class, or to exchange all or a portion of the shares of another class for that class of shares or to grant the rights to exchange the same;
- (3) to cancel or reduce the rights to claiming all the accrued dividends or cumulative dividends of shares of that class of shares;
- (4) to reduce or cancel the preferential rights of that class of shares to claim the dividends or the preference to distribution of assets upon the liquidation of the Company;
- (5) to increase, cancel or reduce the rights to conversion of shares, options, voting rights, rights of transfer, pre-emptive rights and the rights to acquire the securities of the Company of that class of shares;
- (6) to cancel or reduce the rights to receive the monies payable by the Company in a particular currency of that class of shares;
- (7) to create a new class of shares which have the rights to voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to that class of shares;

- (8) to restrict or to impose more restrictions on the transfer or ownership of that class of shares;
- (9) to issue rights on subscription for or conversion of shares into that class of shares or another class of shares;
- (10) to increase the rights and privileges of another class of shares;
- (11) to re-structure the Company in such a way that different class shareholders will undertake disproportionate obligations under the restructuring;
- (12) to vary or abrogate the provisions of this chapter.

Article 124 The classes of shareholders being affected, with or without voting rights at the general meeting of shareholders, shall have voting rights at the class meeting of shareholders in relation to matters specified in Articles 117(2) through (8), (11) through (12). However, shareholders having interest shall not have any voting rights at the class meeting of shareholders.

“Interested shareholder(s)” mentioned in the preceding paragraph means:

- (i) in the case of a repurchase of shares from all the shareholders in proportion to their arising shareholdings or by public purchases through the stock exchanges made in accordance with Article 27, interested shareholder refers to the controlling shareholder as defined under Article 50;
- (ii) in the case of a repurchase of shares under an off-market agreement made in accordance with Article 27; interested shareholder refers to the shareholder relating to that agreement;
- (iii) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, interested shareholder refers to a shareholder within a class who bears less than proportionate liabilities imposed on that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interest of the shareholders of that class.

Article 125 The resolutions of the class meeting of shareholders shall be passed only through voting by shareholders having more than two-thirds of equity interest with voting rights and attending such class meeting in accordance with Article 118.

Article 126 The Company shall send to all registered shareholders of that class written notices of the class meeting 45 days before the date of class meeting of shareholders, informing them of the matters to be considered at and the date and venue of the class meeting. Those shareholders of the class who wish to attend the meeting shall return the written replies to the Company 20 days before the meeting.

Where the number of class shares held by those shareholders who wish to attend the meeting and have the right to vote thereat is more than half of the total number of shares of that class with the voting rights, the Company shall convene that class meeting, failing which the Company shall, within 5 days, inform the shareholders of the class again in the form of public announcement the proposed matters for consideration at and the date and venue of the class meeting. Class meeting may be convened after such notification.

Article 127 The notices of class shareholders' meeting should be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote thereat. The class shareholders' meeting should be held in the procedures much the same as possible as those of the general meeting, and the procedures for holding a general meeting as set out in the Articles of Association of the Company apply to the class shareholders' meeting.

Article 128 In accordance with the provisions under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, in addition to shareholders of other classes of shares, shareholders of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special procedures for approval by separate class shareholders shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (1) where the Company issues domestic shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares upon approval by a special resolution at a general meeting and either separately or concurrently once every twelve months, and the number of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares so issued shall not exceed 20% of each of the then outstanding domestic shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares;
- (2) where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares on its establishment is implemented within fifteen months from the date of approval by the Securities Commission of the State Council.

Chapter 10 The Board

Section 1 The Board

Article 129 The Company set up the Board (the "Board"). The Board of Directors consists of 11 directors, including one chairman and one vice chairman.

Article 130 Directors shall be elected at the general meeting of shareholders, with a term of office of three years. Upon expiration of the term, the directors may be re-elected and serve consecutive terms.

The written notice of the intention of the nominees of the candidates for directors and of the acceptance by the candidates to be nominated shall be served on the Company seven days before the convening of the general meeting of shareholders.

Directors and deputy directors shall be elected or dismissed by a majority of the general body of directors. The term of office of directors and deputy directors shall be three years and they may be re-elected and serve consecutive terms.

Subject to the compliance of the provisions of the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the general meeting of the shareholders may dismiss by ordinary resolution any directors of whom the term of office has not expired (the claim for compensation under any contracts shall however be not affected). The term of directors shall commence on the date of entering on the office, and shall end on the date the term of the board of directors expires. Prior to the expiry of the term of a director, the general meeting of shareholders shall not dismiss the duties of such director without any reasons.

Where no new appointment is made upon expiry of the term of a director, the original director shall, prior to the new director entering on the office, continue to perform his or her duties as a director in accordance with the provisions of laws and administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Managers or other senior management personnel shall serve the office of director concurrently. However, the total number of directors serving the office of manager or other senior management personnel concurrently and labour union representative holding the office of director shall not exceed half of the total number of directors of the Company. Directors are not required to hold shares of the Company.

Article 131 Where a director is unable to attend in person the general meeting of directors twice or has not entrusted other directors to attend, he or she shall be deemed as not performing his or her duties, and the Board shall recommend the general meeting of the shareholders to dismiss and replace such director.

Article 132 Directors may resign before his or her term of office expires. Directors resigning shall submit notice of resignation in writing to the Board.

If the resignation of a director causes the number of directors constituting the Board to fall below the quorum, the original director shall, prior to the new director entering on the office, continue to perform his or her duties as a director in accordance with the provisions of laws and administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Save for the circumstances listed in the foregoing, the resignation of a director takes effect upon the notice of resignation is served.

Article 133 Upon the resignation of a director takes effect or the expiry of the term of office, such director shall duly complete all handover. The fiduciary duties owed by the director to the Company and shareholders will not be released for certain before or within a reasonable period of time after the resignation takes effect. The obligation of confidentiality of such director in relation to the commercial secrets of the Company remains effective after the term of such director ends until such commercial secrets become public information. The continuity of other obligations shall be determined on the principle of fairness, and dependent on the length of time between the incident occurs and the resignation, as well as the conditions and circumstances under which the director terminates his or her relationship with the Company.

Article 134 Without stipulation by these Articles of Association or legal authorization by the Board, no director shall in his or her own name act for the Company or the board of directors. Where a director acts in his or her own name but a third party reasonably believes that such director is acting for the Company or the Board, such director shall declare in advance his or her position and status.

Article 135 The Board is accountable for the general meeting of the shareholders and shall exercise the following powers:

- (1) convention of general meetings of shareholders, and report to the general meetings;
- (2) implementation of the resolutions of the general meeting;
- (3) formulation of the business plan and investment scheme of the Company;
- (4) formulation of the annual financial budget and financial accounting policy of the Company;
- (5) formulation of the profit distribution policy and loss recovery policy of the Company;
- (6) formulation of the policy of increase or reduction of registered capital and the policy of issue of corporate bonds of the Company;
- (7) drafting of the policies of material corporate acquisition, acquisition of shares of the Company, or the merger, separation, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (8) making decision on the establishment of internal management system in the Company;
- (9) employment or dismissal of the managers of the Company; on the basis of nomination, employment or dismissal of the assistant managers, person in charge of finance and other senior management personnel of the Company; making decision on their remuneration;
- (10) formulation of the basic management system of the Company;
- (11) formulation of the proposal on amendment of these Articles of Association;
- (12) making decision on external guarantee where the items guaranteed satisfying the conditions of the Company involves an amount of more than 10% (or 10%) of the net assets in the consolidated financial statements of the most recent fiscal year;
- (13) making decisions on matters such as external investment, acquisition and sale of assets, mortgaged assets, external guarantee, financial management by commission, connected transaction, within the scope of authorization by the general meeting of shareholders;
- (14) management of disclosure of information of the Company;

- (15) proposal to the general meeting of shareholders on employment or replacement of accounting firm responsible for auditing for the Company;
- (16) receiving the work report of the managers of the Company and checking the work of the managers;
- (17) other powers granted by these Articles of Association and the general meeting of shareholders.

When the Board makes resolutions on the aforesaid matters, saving for matters as set out in sections (6), (7), (11) and (12) which require consent by more than two thirds of directors through voting, the remaining matters may be approved by more than half of directors through voting.

Article 136 The Board shall explain to the general meeting of shareholders regarding the advice issued by the chartered accountant in relation to the financial report of the Company.

Article 137 The Board shall formulate the rules of proceedings of the Board, for the purpose of ensuring the implementation by the Board of the resolutions of the general meeting of shareholders, enhancing work efficiency, and guaranteeing scientific decision making.

The rules of proceedings of the Board shall provide for the convening of the meetings of Board and voting procedures.

Article 138 For the disposal of fixed assets by the Board, in the event that the aggregate amount of the expected value of the proposed disposal of fixed assets and the value of the disposed fixed assets during the four months prior to this proposed disposal exceeds 33% of the value of fixed assets shown in the latest balance sheet as considered at the general meeting, the Board shall not dispose or agree to dispose of such fixed asset without obtaining approval at the general meeting.

The disposal of fixed assets as referred to in this Article includes the transfer of certain interests of assets but excludes the provision of fixed assets as security.

The validity of the transactions for the disposal of fixed assets conducted by the Company shall not be affected by the breach of section 1 of this Article.

Article 139 Chairman of the Board shall exercise the following powers:

- (1) to preside the general meeting of shareholders, and to convene, preside the meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to supervise and check the actual status of the board resolutions;
- (3) to sign the securities issued by the Company;
- (4) other duties assigned by the Board.

The vice chairman of the Board shall assist the Chairman. The chairman must exercise or perform his or her powers and duties, and may appoint one vice chairman to exercise powers on his or her behalf. Where a vice chairman is unable to or does not perform his or her duties, a majority of the directors may jointly elect one director to perform the duties.

Article 140 Regular meetings of the Board are required to be held at least four times a year, to be convened and presided by the chairman (or any director authorized by the chairman). Notices of such meeting shall be issued to the directors through email, telegraph, fax, express mail, registered mail or in person 14 days before the date of such meeting. In the event of urgent matters, an extraordinary meeting of the Board may be convened at the proposal of one-third (inclusive) or more of the directors or the manager(s) of the Company.

Board meetings, in principle, are held at the Company's legal address. However, they may also be held at any other places in or outside of China as resolved by the Board.

Article 141 Where it is necessary to convene a provisional meeting of board of directors, a notice shall be given to the general body of directors by e-mail, telephone, telegraph or facsimile at least 48 hours in advance.

Shareholders representing more than one-tenth of voting rights or more than one-third of directors, supervisors or managers of the Company may propose to convene a provisional meeting of Board. The chairman of the Board shall convene and preside a board meeting within ten days after receiving such proposal.

Article 142 The meeting of Board shall be convened in the attendance of more than one half of directors.

Each director shall have one vote. Resolutions made by the Board must be passed by a majority of the general body of directors.

Where number of opposing votes and that of affirmative votes are the same, the chairman of the Board shall be entitled to have one vote.

No directors shall vote on any transaction in which he or she or his or her associates ("associate" is defined in accordance with the general statutory interpretation in the jurisdiction where the shares of the Company are listed) has or have material interest, and such directors nor exercise voting rights on behalf of other directors. Such directors shall not be counted in the number of attendees of the relevant meeting of the Board. Such Board meeting shall be convened in the attendance of a majority of non-connected directors. Resolutions made by the board meetings shall be approved by a majority of non-connected directors. Where there are less than three non-connected directors in a board meeting, any matters to be deliberated shall be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders.

Article 143 Notice given in writing shall be in Chinese language. Such notice shall contain all information such as agenda, time and date, venue, period, cause, matters to be discussed of the meeting, and date of issue of such notice. If any director who attends the meeting but has not stated before or upon attendance the no notice of the meeting has been received, such director shall be deemed to have received the notice of the meeting.

Article 144 The general meetings or extraordinary meetings of the Board can be held via teleconference or by means of any similar communication equipments. Directors are deemed as attending the meeting personally if the attending Directors are able to clearly hear what other Directors speak and communicate with each other.

Article 145 The Board may consider and approve resolutions in written form instead of convening a Board meeting. Draft of such resolutions must be delivered to each director through email, mail, telegraph, fax or in person. The resolution so proposed will be passed as a resolution of the Board only after it is signed and approved by two-third or more of the Directors and delivered to the Secretary to the Board by one of the aforesaid means.

For any resolutions required to be passed by voting at an extraordinary board meetings, if the resolution to be passed is sent to all directors in writing (including email, telegraph or fax) and the number of directors who sign and approve such resolution meets the number of directors as required to make such decision in accordance with Article 131 of the Articles of Association of the Company, such resolution is deemed effectively passed and no Board meeting is required to be convened.

Article 146 Directors shall attend any meeting of the Board in person. Where a director is unable to attend for some reasons, he or she may authorize in writing another director to attend the board meeting on his or her behalf. The instrument of proxy shall specify the name of the proxy, the matters to be authorized, scope of authorization and validity, and the proxy shall sign on or affix a chop to such instrument.

The director attending the meeting for another director shall exercise the rights of latter director within the scope of authorization. Any director who is unable to attend a particular board meeting without authorizing a proxy to attend shall be deemed as waiving the right to vote at that meeting.

Article 147 Proceedings and voting procedures of meetings of the Board shall be in accordance with the Rules of Procedures for the Board of directors of the Company.

Article 148 The Board shall cause the decisions on the matters discussed at the meeting to be recorded in the minutes with the signatures of the attending directors and the minutes-taker. The directors shall assume the liability of the resolutions of the Board. The directors who attend the meeting in which the resolution is passed shall assume liability of indemnification for any material loss caused to the Company arising from the breach of any laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Associations by such resolutions of the Board. However, a director's liability may be waived if it is proved that such director has raised an objection to such resolution and such objection is recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 149 The minutes of the board of directors shall be kept as records of the Company for a period of ten years. Such minutes shall include the following:

- (1) date and venue of the meeting, and the name of the convener;
- (2) names of attending directors and the directors (or proxies) attending the board meeting on behalf of others;
- (3) agenda of the meeting;
- (4) main points of the speeches of the directors;
- (5) methods and results of voting of each resolution (voting results shall specify the number of affirmative, opposing or veto votes).

Article 150 All resolutions of the board meeting shall be recorded and kept in Chinese language. The minutes of the meeting shall be given to all directors for review after each board meeting. Any director intending to make any amendment to the minutes shall propose his/her opinion in writing to the chairman within six working days upon his/her receipt of such minutes of meeting.

Section 2 Independent Director

Article 151 An independent director refers to a director who does not act in other capacities in the Company other than a director, and who does not have any relationship with the Company or its substantial shareholders who may affect the Director in making independent and objective judgement.

Article 152 The Company shall appoint independent directors. The ratio of independent directors to the total number of directors in the Board of directors shall be no less than one-third. Under no circumstances shall there be less than three independent non-executive directors (independent directors shall satisfy the requirements of an independent non-executive director under the respective listing rules of The Shanghai Stock Exchange and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited). At least one of the independent directors should be a professional accountant with senior title or qualification as a certified public accountant.

Article 153 Independent directors shall attend meetings of the Board, understand the production and operation of the Company, conduct active investigation to obtain the background and information required for decision-making. Independent directors shall submit an annual report of all independent directors to the annual general meeting of the Company, stating their performance of duties.

Article 154 An independent director is required to meet the following basic requirements:

- (1) having the qualifications as a Director of a listed company as required by the laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the stock exchange in which the Company's shares are listed and any other relevant rules;

- (2) satisfying the criteria of independence as stipulated in “Opinion of Guidance for Independent Director System of a Listed Company” issued by China Securities Regulatory Commission. Two of Independent Directors is also required to satisfy the criteria for independent non-executive directors as stipulated in The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited;
- (3) having basic knowledge on the operations of a listed company, and being familiar with relevant laws, administrative regulations and rules;
- (4) having more than five years’ working experience in the field of law or finance, or any other working experiences necessary for discharging the duties as an independent director;
- (5) meeting any other requirement as specified in these Articles of Association.

Article 155 The following persons shall not act as an independent director of the Company:

- (1) any employees of the Company or its subsidiaries and his/her direct relatives and main social relations. Direct relatives include spouse, parents and children. Main social relations include brothers, sisters, parents-in-law, sons/daughters-in-law, spouses of brothers and sisters, brothers and sisters of spouse;
- (2) any person holding, directly or indirectly, 1% or above of the shares of the Company in issue or being a top 10 shareholder of the Company and his/her direct relatives;
- (3) an employee of an entity shareholder which directly or indirectly holds 5% or above of the shares of the Company in issue or an employee of a top 5 entity shareholder and his/her direct relatives;
- (4) any person who meets any of three criteria during the most recent year;
- (5) any person who provides financial, legal, consultation services for the Company or its subsidiaries;
- (6) any other person specified in the Articles of Association;
- (7) any other person as defined by the CSRC.

Article 156 Independent director has obligations of good faith and due diligence to the Company and all shareholders. Independent director shall in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association perform his duties in a serious manner, safeguard the overall interests of the Company and, in particulars to ensure that the legal rights of the minority shareholders are not harmed.

An independent director shall carry out his duties independently without being influenced by substantial shareholder, de facto shareholder or any entity or individual having interested in the Company and its substantial shareholders or de facto shareholder, and shall ensure that he has sufficient time and energy to effectively carry out his duties.

In the event that an independent director fails to comply with the requirement of independence or in situations that an independent director fails to perform his duty in the capacity of an independent director and results in the inadequate number of independent directors as stipulated under the Articles of Association, the Company shall appoint the number of independent directors as required.

Article 157 Nomination, election and change of independent directors

- (i) The Company's Board, supervisory committee, and shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than 1% of the issued shares of the Company, may nominate candidates to stand for election as independent directors at general meetings.
- (ii) The nominator of an independent director shall seek the consent of the nominee before nomination. The nominator shall fully understand the nominee's profession, educational background, professional title, detailed working experience, and details on any part-time posts, and shall give an opinion regarding the nominee's qualifications and independence in acting as independent director. The nominee shall declare that there is no relationship between the Company and himself/herself which may affect him/her in making independent and objective judgements. Before the general meeting at which election of independent directors is to be considered, the Board of the Company shall make an announcement in respect of the aforesaid details in accordance with the regulations.
- (iii) Before the general meeting is convened for the election of independent directors, the Company shall submit the Board's opinion in writing and particulars of all nominees to the CSRC, the local security authority where the Company is located and the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed. Where the Board holds a dissenting view in respect of the nominees, a written opinion shall be submitted concurrently. A nominee against whom a dissenting view is expressed by the CSRC may act as a candidate for a Director of the Company, but not as a candidate for independent director. During the election of independent directors at the general meeting, the Board of the Company shall explain whether the candidate for independent director has received a dissenting view from the CSRC.
- (iv) The term of office of an independent director is the same as that of any other Directors. An independent director may offer himself/herself for election upon retiring from office and may serve for another term not exceeding 6 years if (s)he has been so re-elected.
- (v) The Board shall propose to the general meeting to remove any independent director who is considered unable to perform his duties by reason that (s)he is consecutively fails to attend the Board meetings in person for 3 times. Except for the circumstances as mentioned above or any other circumstances which prohibit anyone from serving as Director as provided by the Company Law, no independent director may be removed without cause prior to the expiration of his/her term. The Company shall disclose its removal of an independent director prior to the expiration of his/her term of office as a special disclosable matter and give the reasons on such removal in details. The independent director who believes (s)he has been unjustifiably removed may make a public statement thereon.

- (vi) An independent director may resign before expiration of his term of office. An independent director shall tender his resignation in writing to the Board, providing any details which are related to his resignation or are necessary in his opinion to be brought to the attention of the shareholders and creditors of the Company. If the resignation of the independent director results in the percentage of independent directors in the Board or the members of the Board of directors falls below the statutory minimum or the requirement under the Articles of Association, the resignation shall become effective only upon the appointment of a replacement independent director. The Board shall convene a general meeting within two months to appoint independent directors. In the case that the Board of directors fails to convene a general meeting, independent directors may not continue to perform their duties.

Article 158 Power and duties of independent directors

- (i) In order to exercise the function of an independent director, save for the power vested by the company law and other relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association, independent directors of the Company shall be vested with the following special power and duties:

- (2) Independent directors shall give one of the following opinions in respect of the aforesaid matters:

1. consent;
2. qualified opinion and its reason;
3. objection and its reason;
4. no comment and the restriction on making comments.

- (3) If the matters are disclosable, the Company shall also make public announcement on the independent directors' opinion. Where there are dissenting opinions among the independent directors, the Board shall disclose all independent directors' opinion separately.

Article 160 To ensure that independent directors are in a position to exercise their powers effectively, the Company shall provide independent directors with the following essential conditions.

- (i) The Company shall ensure that independent directors have the same right to information as other directors, shall provide independent directors with relevant materials, information of its operation on a timely basis. On-site visits may also be arranged when necessary. The Company shall within statutory time inform independent directors in advance of matters to be considered by the Board and provide them with enough information. Should an independent director regards the information provided not sufficient, he may request supplementary information. Whenever two or more independent directors are of the opinion that the information provided is insufficient or the evidence is not explicit, they can jointly in writing request the Board of directors to postpone the convening of the board meeting or postpone consideration of that matter, and the Board shall accept accordingly. Information provided to independent directors by the Company shall be kept for at least 5 years by the Company and each independent director.
- (ii) The Company shall provide essential conditions to enable independent directors to discharge their duties. The secretary to the Board of the Company shall provide assistance to the independent directors to enable them to discharge their duties, and shall be responsible for liaison and coordination with the independent directors, including but not limited to giving explanation and providing information. The secretary to the Board of the Company shall arrange the publication of the announcement if the independent opinion, proposal and written explanation given by the independent directors shall be announced.
- (iii) The Company and relevant staff members shall actively assist independent directors in carrying out their functions and duties to ensure that they understand the true circumstances, and shall not refuse, obstruct or cover up facts, or interfere with the independent directors' carrying out of their functions and duties.
- (iv) Costs and expenses in respect of appointment of an intermediary organization by an independent director or incurred form an independent director's carrying out of his/her functions and duties shall be borne by the Company.
- (v) The Company shall provide appropriate subsidies to the independent directors. The standards of the subsidies shall be formulated by the Board, reviewed and passed at the general meeting and disclosed in the Company's annual reports.

Apart from the above subsidies, an independent director is not allowed to obtain other extra and undisclosed benefits from the Company and its major shareholders or organizations or people with a conflict of interests.

Section 3 Committees of the Board

Article 185 The validity of any act of a director, general manager or any other senior officer of the Company acting on behalf of the Company against any bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularity in his appointment, election or any defects in his qualification.

Article 186 In addition to the obligations imposed by the laws and administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, a director, a supervisor, the general manager or any other senior officer of the Company owes a duty to each shareholder for the following in the exercise of the powers entrusted to him/her:

- (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business licence;
- (2) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to expropriate in any guise the properties of the Company, including but not limited to taking over any opportunities advantageous to the Company;
- (4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders including but not limited to the rights to distribution and voting rights save and except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted for approval at a general meeting in accordance with these Articles.

Article 187 A director, a supervisor, the general manager or any other senior officer of the Company, owes a duty, in the exercise of his/her powers and discharge of his/her duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonable and prudent person would be expected to exercise in comparable circumstances.

The directors, including independent directors and those who intend to act as independent directors, of the Company shall take an active part in relevant training in order to understand the rights, obligations and responsibilities as Directors, including independent directors, get familiar with relevant laws and regulations and master relevant knowledge required as a Director, including independent directors.

Article 188 The directors, supervisors, the general manager and other senior officers of the Company shall perform their duties in accordance with the principle of fiduciary; and shall not put themselves in a position where their duties and their interests may conflict. This principle applies to, including but not limited to, discharging the following obligations:

- (1) to act sincerely in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to exercise powers within the scope of their powers and not to act ultra vires;
- (3) to exercise the discretion rights vested to them personally and not to allow themselves to act under the control of another and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given at the general meeting, not to delegate their discretion rights to others;
- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (5) except in accordance with the Articles of Association or with the informed consent of shareholders given at the general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or agreement with the Company;
- (6) without the informed consent of shareholders given at the general meeting, not to use the Company's property for their own benefit;
- (7) not to abuse their duties to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property by any means, including but not limited to taking over any opportunities advantageous to the Company;
- (8) without the informed consent of shareholders given at the general meeting, not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions;
- (9) to abide by the Articles of Association, perform their duties faithfully and protect the Company's interests, and not to abuse their positions and duties in the Company for their own private interests;
- (10) not to compete with the Company in any way unless with the informed consent of shareholders given at the general meeting;

- (11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or lend such funds to others, not to open accounts in their own names or other names for the deposit of the Company's assets and not to pledge the Company's asset as security for the debts of a shareholder of the Company or any other individual(s);
- (12) unless otherwise permitted by informed shareholders at the general meeting, to keep in confidence information acquired by them in the course of and during their tenure and not to use such information other than in furtherance of the interests of the Company, save that disclosure of such information to the court or any other governmental authorities is permitted if the disclosure is made:
 1. under the laws;
 2. for public interests;
 3. for the interests of such Director, supervisor, the general manager or other senior officers.

Article 189 Each director, supervisor, the general manager and other senior officers of the Company shall not cause the following persons or institutions ("associates") to do what (s)he is prohibited from doing:

- (1) the spouse or minor child/children of such director, such supervisor, the general manager or such other senior officer of the Company;
- (2) any person acting in the capacity of the trustee of such director, such supervisor, the general manager or such other senior officer of the Company or any person referred to in clause (1) of this Article;
- (3) any person acting in the capacity of a partner of such director, such supervisor, the general manager or such other senior officer of the Company or any person referred to in clauses (1) and (2) of this Article;
- (4) any company controlled by such director, such supervisor, the general manager or such other senior officer of the Company, alone or jointly with the persons referred to in clause (1) to (3) of this Article or commonly de facto controlled with other directors, supervisors, the general manager and such other senior officer of the Company.
- (5) any directors, supervisors, the general manager or any other senior officers of the controlled company referred to in clauses (4) of this Article.

Article 190 The fiduciary duties of the directors, the supervisors, the general manager and other senior officers of the Company do not necessarily cease upon the termination of their tenure. The obligation of confidentiality in relation to trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of their tenure. Other obligations may continue for such period as to be determined under the principle of fairness, depending on the time lapse between the termination and the act concerned and the circumstances under which the relationship between them and the Company are terminated.

Article 191 Directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management personnel violating the duties of a particular specific obligation shall be dismissed by the general meeting of shareholders with the knowledge, saving the circumstance stipulated in Article 51 hereof.

Article 192 A director, a supervisor, the general manager or any other senior officer of the Company who to his/her knowledge is in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company, (other than his/her contract of service with the Company) shall declare the nature and extent of his/her interests to the Board at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the Board.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, general manager or other senior officer of the Company discloses his/her interests to the Board in accordance with this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement is approved by the Board at a meeting in which the interested director, supervisor, general manager or other senior officer is not counted in the quorum and has abstained from voting, the Company has the right to rescind such contract, transaction or arrangement in which such director, such supervisor, the general manager or other senior officer is interested except as against a bona fide party thereto acting without notice of the breach of duty by the interested Director, supervisor, general manager or other senior officer.

For the purposes of this Article, a director, a supervisor, the general manager or other senior officer of the Company is deemed to be interested in the contract, transaction or agreement in which an associate of him/her is interested.

Article 193 Where a director, a supervisor, the general manager or other senior officers of the Company gives to the Board a general notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, (s)he is interested in the contracts, transactions or arrangements of any description which may subsequently be made by the Company, that notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article to be a sufficient declaration of his/her interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such general notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first considered by the Company.

Article 194 The Company shall not in any manner pay taxes for a director, a supervisor, the general manager or any other senior officers.

Article 195 Requirements in respect of the Company's guarantees are as follows:

- (I) The Company is prohibited from directly or indirectly providing a loan or a guarantee for a loan to a director, a supervisor, the general manager or other senior officers of the Company and its holding company, and is prohibited from providing a loan or a guarantee for a loan to the persons connected with such directors, such supervisors, the general manager and other senior officers.

The following transactions are not subject to the prohibition as set out above:

- I. the provision by the Company of a loan to, or a guarantee for a loan for, a company which is a subsidiary of the Company;
- II. the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee for a loan or any other funds under a service contract with any of its Directors, supervisors, the general manager or other senior officers as approved at the general meetings to meet expenditures incurred or to be incurred by them for the purposes of the Company or for the purposes of enabling them to properly perform their duties;
- III. where the normal business of the Company includes lending of money or the provision of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee for any of its Directors, its supervisors, the general manager or other senior officers or any persons connected with them on normal commercial terms.

(II) Guarantees to other parties

- I. The Company is prohibited from providing a guarantee for a loan to a controlling shareholder, a subsidiary of a shareholder, a fellow subsidiary of a shareholder and other related parties in which the Company holds less than 50% equity interests, or any non-legal persons or individuals;
- II. The total amount of guarantees provided by the Company shall not be more than 50% of net asset value of the Company as shown in the latest audited consolidated financial statements;
- III. The Company shall carry out a credit review of the parties for which the Company provides guarantee and the Company is not allowed to, directly or indirectly, provide guarantee for a loan to any party whose debt to assets ratio is higher than 70%;
- IV. For any guarantee to be provided by the Company, the Company must request the party for which the guarantee is given to give a counter guarantee to the Company and the party who gives the counter guarantee must have the actual capability to perform the counter guarantee.

(III) Considering and approving procedures for external guarantee:

- (i) The Company shall obtain consent in writing of over two-thirds of the members of the Board of directors or approval from general meeting in accordance with the laws, regulations in the PRC or the listing rules of its listing stock exchanges when providing external guarantee. The power of approval by the Board of directors are stipulated in Rules of Procedures for the Board of directors.

(ii) Before the Board of directors decides to provide external guarantee (or submits it to general meeting for approval), adequate information in respect of the credit standing of debtors shall be obtained and sufficient analysis with respect to the benefits and risks of guarantee to be provided shall be conducted. Detailed disclosure should be made in relevant announcements.

(iii) In case of a shareholder or director interested in the guarantee to be considered by general meetings or Board meetings, the said shareholder or director shall abstain from voting.

Article 196 Any loan made by the Company in breach of Article 189 shall be forthwith repaid by the recipient of the loan regardless the term of the loan.

Article 197 In the case that the Company provides loans in violation of the first paragraph of Article 189, the Company is not obliged to execute, unless:

- (i) the loan is provided to the respective associates of directors, supervisors, general managers and other senior management of the Company or its controlling company and the person providing the loans is not aware of the connections; or
- (ii) that the collateral provided by the Company have been legally sold to bona fide purchaser by the party granting such loan.

Article 198 The guarantees as mentioned in the previous Articles hereof include provision by the guarantor of an undertaking or property to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Article 199 In the event that a director, a supervisor, the general manager or any other senior officer of the Company is in breach of his/her obligation to the Company, the Company has the right to take the following measures in addition to the various rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations:

- (1) to demand such director, supervisor, the general manager or other senior officer to pay damages for the losses suffered by the Company caused by his/her breach of duties;
- (2) to rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with such director, supervisor, general manager or other senior officer and any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with a third party who knew or should have known that such Director, supervisor, the general manager or other senior officer representing the Company is in breach of his/her obligation to the Company;
- (3) to demand such director, supervisor, the general manager or other senior officer to hand over the proceeds received as a consequence of the breach of his/her obligation;
- (4) to recover from such director, supervisor, general manager or other senior officer any proceeds which should otherwise have been received by the Company, including without limitation to commissions;

- (5) to demand such director, supervisor, the general manager or other senior officer to return such interests accrued or to be accrued from the monies which should otherwise have been paid to the Company.

Article 200 The Company shall, with the prior approval of the shareholders at general meeting, enter into a written contract with the Directors or the supervisors of the Company in respect of their emoluments. Their emoluments comprise:

- (1) the emoluments in respect of their services as director, supervisors or other senior officers of the Company;
- (2) the emoluments in respect of their services as director; supervisors or other senior officers of subsidiaries of the Company;
- (3) the emoluments for the provision of any other services in connection with the management of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- (4) payment by way of compensation for loss of office or retirement of such Directors or supervisors.

Unless otherwise stipulated in the aforesaid contract, a director or a supervisor has no right to take any legal proceedings against the Company with respect to any benefits which ought to be received by him/her for such matters as set out in the foregoing Articles.

Article 201 A clause should be included in the contracts made between the Company and directors or supervisors of the Company for their emoluments to provide, subject to the prior approval at general meeting, the directors or the supervisors with compensation or any other payment for their loss of office or retirement from office as a result of the Company being taken over. The phrase “the Company being taken over” referred to in this Article means any of the followings:

- (1) an offer made to all shareholders by any person;
- (2) an offer made by an offeror with a view to becoming the controlling shareholder. The definition of the “controlling shareholder” shall be the same as that defined in the Article 50 hereof. If the relevant director or supervisor fails to comply with this Article, any sum received by him/her shall belong to the shareholders who have disposed of their shares by accepting the offer made as aforesaid; and the expenses incurred from the distribution of such proceeds pro rata amongst those shareholders shall be borne by such director or supervisor and is not allowed to be deducted out of that proceeds.

Article 202 Subject to the approval at the general meeting, the Company may purchase liability insurance for its directors, supervisors, managers and other senior officers except for the liabilities as result of violating laws, regulations and these Articles of Associations.

Article 203 Any person taking up the position other than a director in the organization of the Company's controlling shareholder or actual controlling party may not take up the position of senior management personnel of the Company.

Article 204 Senior management personnel who violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles of Association in his/her performance of duties and powers and causing the Company to suffer damages shall bear compensation liability.

Chapter 15 Financial Accounting System

Article 205 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and PRC Accounting Standards formulated by the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 206 The Company shall prepare financial statements at the end of each financial year and shall have it audited in accordance with the laws.

Article 207 The Board of the Company shall prepare and submit the financial statements to the shareholders at annual general meeting as required by relevant laws, administrative regulations or regulatory documents issued by regional governments and competent authorities.

Article 208 The financial statements of the Company shall be available for inspection by shareholders at the premises of the Company 20 days before the date of annual general meeting. Every shareholder of the Company is entitled to receive the financial statements as mentioned in these Articles of Associations.

The Company shall send to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign investment shares the aforesaid statements, or a summary thereof if so permitted in The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, at least 21 days before the annual general meeting through prepaid envelope mail to the address appearing on the register of members of the Company. To the extent as permitted under The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, such statements may be sent to the shareholders of H Shares through electronic means.

Article 209 The financial statements of the Company should be prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards and regulations.

Article 210 The announcement and disclosure of the interim results or financial data of the Company should be prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards and regulations.

Article 211 The Company shall publish its two financial reports in each financial year, that is, its interim financial reports within 60 days of the end of the first six months of a financial year and its annual financial reports within 120 days of its financial year end.

Article 212 No books of accounts other than those provided in accordance with laws may be established by the Company. Assets of the Company shall not be deposited in accounts opened and maintained in the name of any individual.

Chapter 16 Distribution of Profits

Article 213 The profits of the Company after tax shall be distributed to uses in the following order:

- (1) Making up loss;
- (2) Depositing as statutory reserve;
- (3) Deposition as discretionary reserve;
- (4) Payment of ordinary share dividend.

The Board of the Company shall determine the specific proportion of profit distribution to uses as set out in sections (3), (4) above in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the business and development needs of the Company, and such proportion shall be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval.

Where the general meeting of shareholders is in breach of the first paragraph of this Article to make profit distribution to the shareholders before offsetting the losses and contributing to the statutory surplus reserve, the shareholders shall return the profits so distributed to the Company.

Article 214 The capital reserve fund comprises the following:

- (1) the amount of share premium arising from the issue in excess of the par value of shares;
- (2) any other incomes to be transferred to the capital reserve fund in accordance with the requirements of the financial regulatory authorities under the State Council.

Article 215 The surplus reserve of the Company is only allowed to be used for making up losses of the Company, expansion of production facilities of the Company and conversion into capital of the Company.

When converting its surplus reserve fund into share capital under the resolution of shareholders at general meeting, the Company shall issue new shares to existing shareholders in proportion to their original shareholdings. When converting the statutory surplus reserve into share capital, the remaining amount of the fund unconverted must not be less than 25% of the registered capital.

The Company shall apply the welfare fund for the collective welfare of the employees and workers of the Company.

Article 216 The Company shall distribute dividends on an annual basis. After the Company's general meeting of shareholders has passed a resolution on profit distribution proposal, the Company's Board shall complete the distribution of dividends within two months after the conclusion of the general meeting of shareholders.

Article 217 The profit distribution of the Company is made according to the proportion of the shares held by the shareholders, emphasizing on bringing reasonable investment returns to the investors. The profit distribution policy strives to maintain continuity and stability.

(I) The Company's profit distribution policy is as follows:

1. Principle of profit distribution:

The Company implements a stable policy of profit distribution. On making a profit distribution, the Company will comply with the statutory requirement to make the distribution in order and will take into account the provision of reasonable and stable returns on investment to the shareholders and the long-term and sustainable growth of the Company.

2. Method of profit distribution:

The Company may implement profit distribution in the form of cash, bonus shares or a combination of both, or such other forms which are permitted by laws and regulations. For the purpose of profit distribution, distribution in the form of cash dividend shall have priority over dividend in the form of shares. If the Company shall distribute profits in the form of bonus shares, such distribution shall be made subject to the provision of reasonable dividend in the form of cash and maintenance of an appropriate size of share capital, taking into account, among other things, the growth of the Company and dilution of the net asset value per share.

Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions for distribution of cash dividend, the Company shall distribute dividend in cash annually. The Board may, subject to conditions and base on the financial position of the Company, recommend the Company to declare interim dividends.

3. Conditions of profit distribution and minimum dividend proportion:

The Company shall pay dividends and the total amount of cash dividends so paid (including the interim dividend in cash having been distributed) shall not be less than 10% of the net profit attributable to shareholders of the Company for the year and the accumulated profits distributed in cash in the last three years shall not be less than 30% of the average realized annual distributable profits for the last three years, provided that the working capital requirement for the Company's normal production and operation is met and the longterm and sustainable growth of the Company is maintained, and that there is no material investment plan or material cash expense.

No dividend shall be distributed before the Company offsets its losses and makes contributions to the statutory surplus reserve and the statutory public welfare fund.

Material investment plan or material cash expense means the proposed external investment, acquisition or purchase of assets by the Company in the next twelve months with accumulated expenses amounting to or exceeding 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company.

For distribution of dividends, the Board shall take into account, among other things, features of the industries where the Company operates, stage of development, the Company's own business model, profits level and whether there is significant capital expenditure arrangement in distinguishing the following situations and form different profits distribution proposals in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association:

- (1) If the Company is at the mature stage of development and has no significant capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash dividends shall be at least 80% in the profit distribution;
- (2) If the Company is at the mature stage of development and has significant capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash dividends shall be at least 40% in the profit distribution;
- (3) If the Company is at the growing stage and has significant capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash dividends shall be at least 20% in the profit distribution.

If it is difficult to distinguish the Company's stage of development but there is significant capital expenditure arrangement, the profit distribution may be dealt with pursuant to the rules applied in the previous distribution.

4. In the event of misappropriation of the Company's funds by a Shareholder, the Company can deduct the funds misappropriated from the cash dividends to be allocated to that Shareholder as repayment.
- (II) The management of the Company shall make reasonable proposals on profit distribution to the Board based on, among other things, the provisions of the Articles of Association, size of share capital, profits, investment arrangements, capital needs, cash flow and returns to the shareholders of the Company. The Board should fully and widely listen to the opinions of the independent directors and minority shareholders with respect to the profit distribution proposal through multiple channels and propose detailed annual or interim profit distribution plans which are scientific and reasonable. The independent directors shall fully express their independent opinions with respect to such profit distribution plan(s).

When the profit distribution plan(s) is being considered by the Board, it shall be approved by the majority of all directors and approved by more than one half of the independent directors who are also required to express their explicit independent opinions. When the profit distribution plan(s) is being considered by the supervisory committee, it shall be approved by the majority of all supervisors. The profit distribution plan(s) should only be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration and approval after it has been considered and approved by the Board and the supervisory committee and the plan(s) shall be approved by shareholders present at the general meeting and who hold more than two-thirds of the voting rights.

Procedures for decision making on profit distribution by the Company:

The management of the Company shall make reasonable proposals on profit distribution to the Board based on, among other things, the provisions of the Articles of Association, the size of share capital, profits, investment arrangement, capital needs, cash flow and returns to shareholders of Company. The Board shall fully and widely listen to the opinions of the independent directors and minority shareholders with respect to the profit distribution proposal through multiple channels and propose a detailed annual or interim profit distribution plans which are scientific and reasonable. The independent directors shall fully express their independent opinions with respect to such distribution plans.

When a profit distribution plan is being considered by the Board, it shall be approved by the majority of all directors and approved by more than one half of the independent directors who are also required to express their explicit independent opinions. When it is being considered by the supervisory committee, it shall be approved by the majority of all supervisors. The profit distribution plan should only be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration and approval after it has been considered and approved by the Board and the supervisory committee.

Independent directors may solicit opinions of minority shareholders, propose profit distribution plans and directly submit them to the Board for consideration. The performance of the above functions and exercise of the above authorities by independent directors must be approved by more than one half of all the independent directors.

(III) In the event that the Company revises its profit distribution policy in response to the external business environment or its own state of operation, the Company shall first consider the protection of the shareholders' interests, make thorough consideration and state the reasons thereof. The revised profit distribution policy shall not be contrary to the relevant requirements of CSRC and stock exchanges in the PRC and Hong Kong. The proposal for the revision of the profit distribution policy shall first be approved by the independent directors of the Company and they shall express independent opinions, and thereafter shall be proposed to the Board for consideration before being submitted to the general meeting for consideration and approval by a special resolution thereat. When considering the revised proposal with regard to cash distribution policies, the Company should, through network voting and other ways, to provide convenience for minority shareholders in connection with their attendance at the shareholders' meeting, and such proposal shall be approved by more than two thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' meeting.

If the Company records profits for a year but the Board fails to make any proposal for cash profit distribution, the Board shall state the reasons thereof in detail and the planned application and use of such retained funds that would have been otherwise available for distribution in the annual report for the year, and the independent directors shall express independent opinions in such regard and shall be disclosed accordingly.

(IV) The Company shall expressly disclose the details about the formulation and implementation of the cash dividend policy in its annual report, and state the details of the following matters:

1. Whether the policy is in compliance with the requirements of the Articles of Association or the resolutions passed at the general meeting;
2. Whether the basis and ratio of the distribution of dividends are specific and clear;
3. Whether the relevant decision making procedure and system are sound;
4. Whether the independent directors have duly performed their duties and functions;
5. Whether there are enough opportunities for minority shareholders to express their views and concerns, and whether their legal interests are sufficiently protected, etc.

If the cash dividend policy is to be adjusted or changed, the Company shall disclose the details of such policy, such as whether the conditions and procedures for the adjustments or changes are in compliance with the regulations and are transparent.

Article 218 The Company shall appoint a receiving agent for the shareholders of overseas listed foreign investment shares. The receiving agent shall receive on behalf of such shareholder the dividends distributed and other amounts payable to such shareholders by the Company in respect of the overseas listed foreign investment shares. The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall satisfy the requirements provided under the laws or relevant regulations of the stock exchange at the place of listing. The receiving agent appointed by the Company for the holders of overseas listed foreign investment shares (H shares) listed in Hong Kong shall be a trust company registered under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Article 219 Dividends or other distributions declared by the Company to be payable to holders of any shares shall be denominated in Renminbi, whereas dividends or other distributions payable to holders of domestic shares are paid in Renminbi, and those payable to holders of overseas listed foreign investment shares (H shares) listed in Hong Kong are paid in Hong Kong dollars. The formula for conversion to Hong Kong dollars is as follows:

$$\text{Conversion price of the dividends or other distributions} = \frac{\text{Dividends or other distributions in RMB}}{\text{The mean of the exchange rates for each unit of the foreign currency against RMB as announced by the People's Bank of China for the calendar week preceding the date on which such dividends or other distributions are declared by the Company}}$$

Chapter 17 Internal Audit

Article 220 The Company shall implement an internal audit system and hire professional audit personnel to carry out internal audit and supervision on the Company's financial income and expenses and economic activities.

Article 221 The Company's internal audit system and the duties of the audit personnel thereof shall be implemented after approval by the Board. The audit responsible senior management personnel shall be accountable and report to the board of directors.

Chapter 18 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 222 The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which complies with the relevant requirements of the State to conduct audit on the annual financial statement and to review other financial reports (including accounting reports and verification on net assets etc.) and to provide other related services.

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed at the inaugural meeting of the Company before the first annual general meeting and the appointed accounting firm shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting fails to exercise its aforesaid power, this power shall be exercised by the Board.

Article 223 The accounting firm will be appointed for a term commencing from the close of an annual general meeting and ending at the close of the following annual general meeting.

Article 224 The accounting firm appointed by the Company has the following rights:

- (1) to inspect at any times the books, records and vouchers of the Company, and to request the Directors, general managers or other senior officers of the Company to provide any relevant information and explanation.

Article 225 The Company shall provide accurate and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial and accounting reports and other accounting information to their auditor and shall not refuse to provide, conceal or give false information.

Article 226 Before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, the Board may fill any casual vacancy in the office of the accounting' firm, but while any such vacancy continues, the surviving or continuing firm, if any, may act.

Article 227 The shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting may, by an ordinary resolution, remove an accounting' firm before the expiration of its office, notwithstanding the terms of the contract between the Company and the firm, but without prejudice to the firm's right to claim, if any, for damages in respect of such removal.

Article 228 The remuneration for the accounting firm or the manner in such firm is to be remunerated and shall be determined at the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of the accounting' firm appointed by the Board shall be determined by the Board.

Article 229 The Company's appointment, removal or non-reappointment of an accounting' firm shall be decided by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting and filed with competent securities authorities under the State Council.

Where any resolution is proposed to be passed at a shareholders' general meeting concerning the appointment of any accounting' firm, other than an incumbent firm, to fill a casual vacancy in the office of the accounting' firm, re-appointment of the retiring accounting' firm which was appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy, or removal of the accounting' firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) a copy of the proposal shall be sent to the firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its office or the firm which has left its office in the relevant accounting year before notice of meeting is given. Leaving the office includes removal, resignation and retirement.
- (2) If the leaving accounting' firm makes a representation in writing and requests the Company to notify such representation to the shareholders, the Company shall, unless the representation is not timely received:
 1. in any notice given to shareholders for the purpose of the resolution, state the fact of the representation having been made by the leaving accounting' firm;
 2. attach a copy of the representation to the notice and deliver the same to the shareholders in the manner as stipulated in these Articles of Association.
- (3) If such representation is not sent in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Article, the relevant accounting' firm may request the representation to be read out at the shareholders' general meeting and may make further declaration.
- (4) The leaving accounting firm is entitled to attend:
 1. the shareholders' general meeting at which its term of office would have expired;

2. any shareholders' general meeting at which a resolution will be proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
3. any shareholders' general meeting convened on its resignation;

and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meetings, and to speak at any such meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the former accounting' firm of the Company.

Article 230 Prior notice shall be given by the Company to the accounting firm in the event of removal or non-reappointment and the accounting firm is entitled to make representation at the shareholders' general meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its office, it shall make clear to the shareholders' general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

The accounting firm may resigns from its office by depositing a resignation notice to the Company's legal address. Such notice shall become effective on the date of depositing the notice at the Company's legal address or such later date as may be set out in such notice. Such notice is required to include:

- (1) a statement to clarify that there are no matters related to its resignation which it considers should be brought to the attention of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) a statement on any matters required to be accounted for.

The Company shall send a copy of aforesaid written notice to the relevant regulatory authorities within 14 days upon the receipt by the Company of the same. If a statement as mentioned in section 2 hereof is attached to the notice, a copy of such statement is required to be placed at the Company's registered office for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of the aforesaid statement to the shareholders of overseas listed foreign investment shares through prepaid envelope mail to the address appearing on the register of members of the Company.

The Company's remaining assets after repayment of its debts in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to its shareholders according to the class and proportion of their shareholdings.

The Company is not allowed to commence any new business activities during liquidation.

Article 250 If the Company is liquidated by reason of dissolution and the liquidation committee, having sorted out the Company's assets and prepared a balance sheet and inventory of assets, discovers that the value of the Company's assets are insufficient to settle its debt in full, it shall immediately apply to the People's Court for a declaration of insolvency.

After the People's Court has declared the Company insolvent, the company's liquidation committee shall turn over any matters regarding the liquidation to the People's Court.

Article 251 Upon the completion of liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a statement of income and expense and accounts and books for the period of liquidation which shall be audited by the PRC certified public accountants and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting or relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

The liquidation committee shall also within 30 days after such confirmation by shareholders' general meeting or relevant competent authorities, submit the aforesaid documents to the company registration authority and apply for the deregistration of the Company, and publish an announcement relating to the dissolution of the Company.

Chapter 23 Alterations to the Articles of Association of the Company

Article 252 The Company may amend these Articles of Association in accordance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 253 No amendment to these Articles of Association which involves the amendment of such articles as required by the Mandatory Provisions for the Articles of Association of Companies to be Listed Overseas ("Mandatory Provisions") shall become effective unless obtaining the prior approval of the companies regulatory authorities of the State Council and the approval of the Securities Commission of the State Council. Any amendment involving change to the registered particulars of the Company shall be registered in accordance with the laws.

Chapter 24 Settlement of Disputes

Article 254 The Company shall act according to the following principles to settle disputes:

- (1) Whenever there occur any disputes or claims between holders of the overseas listed foreign investment shares and the Company, holders of the overseas listed foreign investment shares and the Company's directors, supervisors, the general manager or any other senior officers, or holders of the overseas listed foreign investment shares and holders of domestic shares regarding the rights or obligations relating to the affairs of the Company conferred or imposed by the Company's Articles of Association, the Company Law or any other relevant laws and administrative regulations, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

Where a dispute or claim of rights is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or the dispute as a whole must be referred to arbitration, and any parties who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or the claim or whose participation is necessary for the settlement of such dispute or claim, are bound by the award of the arbitration provided that such person is the Company or a shareholder of the Company, a director, a supervisor, the general manager or any other senior officer.

Disputes in relation to the definition of shareholders and disputes in relation to the shareholders' register need not be resolved by arbitration.

- (2) A claimant may elect arbitration at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body so elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects arbitration at Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may request for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

- (3) The laws of the PRC are applicable to the arbitration for the disputes or claims of rights referred to in paragraph 1, save as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.
- (4) The award of an arbitration body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.
