

HENGXIN TECHNOLOGY LTD.

亨鑫科技有限公司*

(the "Company")

AMENDED AND RESTATED TERMS OF REFERENCE OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee (the "AC" or the "Committee") of Hengxin Technology Ltd. (the "Company") has been established by a resolution of the board of directors (the "Board") of the Company passed on 2 May 2006, in accordance with Section 201B of the Companies Act (Chapter 50) of Singapore (the "Act").

The Committee shall be empowered and function as required by the provisions of Section 201B of the Act and be guided by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities (the "Listing Rules") on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

The role of the Committee is to assist the Board with discharging its responsibility to:

- safeguard the Company's assets;
- maintain adequate accounting records; and
- develop and maintain effective systems of internal control.

The overall objective of the Committee is to ensure that the management (the "Management") of the Company has created and maintained an effective control environment in the Company, and that Management demonstrates and stimulates the necessary aspect of the internal control structure among all parties.

As a sub-committee of the Board, the Committee provides a channel of communication between the Board, Management, the internal auditors and external auditors, on matters arising out of the internal and external audits.

The terms of reference proposed for the Committee are annexed hereto as the Appendix A.

* For identification purpose only

4.1.2 Review any formal announcements relating to the Company's financial performance.

4.1.3 Consider any significant or unusual items that are, or may need to be, reflected in the report and accounts, it should give due consideration to any matters that have been raised by the Company's staff responsible for the accounting and financial reporting function, compliance officer or auditors, and should liaise with the Board and senior management and the committee must meet, at least twice a year, with the Company's auditors.

4.1.4 Discuss problems and concerns, if any, arising from the interim and final audits, in consultation with the external auditors and the internal auditors where necessary.

4.2 Overseeing internal control

- a) Review and assess the effectiveness of the internal control systems established by Management to identify, assess, manage, and disclose financial and non-financial risks (including environmental, social and governance related risks and those relating to compliance with existing legislation and regulation), periodically as and when required at least once a year in compliance with Appendix 14 of the Code of Corporate Governance of the Listing Rules and Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Guide as set out in Appendix 27 of the Listing Rules. To discuss the internal control system with the management to ensure that the Management has performed its duty to have an effective internal control system. This discussion should include the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and budget of the Company's accounting and financial reporting function [Note: The Board retains the responsibility for the review of the effectiveness of the system of internal control, and must form its own opinion despite aspects of the review being delegated to the AC.]
- b) Coordinate with the Risk Committee on its oversight on financial reporting matters
- c) Review the Company's financial and internal control systems
- d) Consider any major investigations on internal control matters as delegated by the Board or on its own initiative and Management's response to these findings
- e) Review the statements included in the annual report on the Company's internal controls framework
- f) Review the group's financial and accounting policies and practices
- g) Review Management's and the internal auditors' reports on the effectiveness of the systems for internal control, financial reporting, and risk management
- h) Review the Company's procedures for detecting fraud and whistleblowing, and ensure that arrangements are in place by which staff may, in confidence, raise concerns about possible improprieties in matters of financial reporting, internal control, or any other matters
- i) Review the external auditor's management letter, any material queries raised by the auditor to Management about accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and Management's response
- j) Ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the external auditor's management letter
- k) Report to the Board on the above matters

4.3 Overseeing internal and external audit processes

4.3.1 Internal Audit

- a) Ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and skilled in line with the Company's nature, size, and complexity
- b) Ensure an adequate budget is allocated to the internal audit function, assuring its proper functioning
- c) Review the internal audit program with regard to the complementary roles of the internal and external audit functions
- d) Receive the internal audit reports or a periodic summary thereof
- e) Receive a report on the results of the internal auditors' work on a periodic basis
- f) Review and monitor Management's responsiveness to the internal auditors' findings and recommendations
- g) Ensure that the internal auditors has direct and unrestricted access to the Chairman of the Board and the AC
- h) Participate in the selection and approve the appointment or dismissal of the internal auditors
- i) Assess the performance and determine the remuneration of the internal auditors, within the Company's guidelines
- j) Ensure co-ordination between the internal and external auditors, and to ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company, and to review and monitor its effectiveness

4.3.2 External Audit

- a) Act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relations with the external auditors
- b) In connection with the terms of engagement to the external auditors, to make recommendations to the Board on the selection, appointment, reappointment, resignation and removal of the external auditors based upon a thorough assessment of the external auditors' functioning, and approve the remuneration and Terms of Engagement of the external auditors and any questions of its resignation or dismissal. This proposal should be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval when there is a change of external auditors. Where the Board disagrees with the AC's view on the selection, appointment, resignation or dismissal of the external auditors, the Company should include in the Corporate Governance Report a statement from the AC explaining its recommendation and also the reason(s) why the Board has taken a different view.
- c) Review the audit fees and recommend it for approval by the Board

d) Monitor and assess the external auditors' independence

Steps to consider include:

- Seeking reassurance that the auditors and their staff have no family, financial, employment, investment, or business relationship with the Company and its group (other than in the normal course of business), based on a forwarded report by the external auditors
 - Seeking from the audit firm, on an annual basis, information about policies and processes for maintaining independence and monitoring the external auditors' compliance with relevant regulatory requirements (e.g. audit partner's rotation requirements, level of fees the Company pays in proportion to the overall income of the firm, etc.)
 - Meeting with the auditor, at least annually, in the absence of Management, to discuss matters relating to its audit fees, any issues arising from the audit and any other matters the auditor may wish to raise
 - Agreeing with the Board and monitoring the Company's policy for the employment of former employees of external auditors
- e) Develop and implement policy on engaging external auditor to supply non-audit services to ensure the external auditors' independence or objectivity is not impaired. For this purpose, "external auditor" includes any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party knowing all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally. In doing so, the AC will:
- Set and apply a formal policy specifying the types of non-audit services: (a) from which the external auditors are excluded; (b) for which the external auditors can be engaged without referral to the AC; (c) for which a case-by-case decision is necessary by the AC
 - Consider whether the skills and experience of the audit firm make it a suitable supplier of the non-audit services
 - Ensure safeguards are in place to provide assurance that the external auditors' objectivity and independence is not impaired when performing non-audit services
 - Consider the nature of the non-audit service and the related fee levels (both individually and in aggregate) relative to the audit fee
 - report to the Board, identifying and making recommendations on any matters where action or improvement is needed

- f) Assess, at the end of the audit cycle, the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards by:
 - discussing with the auditor the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations before the audit commences
 - Reviewing the external auditors' findings arising from the audit (including any issues that have subsequently been resolved), giving particular considerations to the key accounting and audit judgments (including why certain errors might remain unadjusted), the level of errors identified during the audit, and the explanation obtained from Management
 - Reviewing whether the auditors have met the agreed audit plan, and understanding the reasons for any changes, including changes in perceived audit risks, and the work undertaken by the external auditors to address those risks
 - Assessing the auditors' accuracy in their handling of the key accounting and identifying audit judgments, their response to questions from the AC, and their commentary on the systems of internal control
 - Obtaining feedback about the conduct of the audit from Management
- g) Review the audit representation letters before consideration by the Board, giving particular consideration to matters that related to nonstandard issues
- h) Review the content of the external auditors' Management letter in order to assess whether it is based on a good understanding of the Company's business, and monitor the responsiveness of Management to the recommendations made (or the reasons why they have not been acted upon), and to ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the external auditor's management letter
- i) Ensure that the external auditors have direct and unrestricted access to the Chairman of the AC and the Chairman of the Board

4.4 Discharging oversight responsibility on Continuing Connected Transactions (CCT)

- a) Review CCTs to consider whether they are on normal commercial terms and are not prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority shareholders
- b) Consider the need for a general mandate for CCTs
- c) Appoint an independent financial adviser to advise on a general mandate
- d) Where a general mandate is being renewed, consider whether the methods or procedures for determining the transaction prices are sufficient to ensure that the transactions will be carried out on normal commercial terms and will not be prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority shareholders
- e) Direct Management to present the rationale, cost-benefit analysis and other details relating to CCTs subject to a specific mandate

- f) Consider the need for independent advisers to advise on CCTs subject to specific mandates
- g) Receive reports from Management and internal auditors on CCTs
- h) Report to minority shareholders on its recommendations on general and specific mandates

4.5 Fraud/Irregularity/Investigation

- a) Review and discuss with the external auditors, any suspected fraud or irregularity, or suspected infringement of any law, rules or regulations, which has or is likely to have a material impact on the Company's operating results or financial position, and Management's response.
- b) Review arrangements staff of the Company can use, in confidence, to raise concerns about possible improprieties in matters of financial reporting, internal controls or other matters and ensure that proper arrangements are in place for fair and independent investigations of these matters and for appropriate follow up actions.

4.6 Overseeing environmental, social and governance matters

- (a) Identify the environmental, social and governance matters that are relevant and material to the operations of our Group and/or that affect shareholders and other key stakeholders (the "Key ESG Matters"), which shall include environmental and social aspects as stated in Appendix 27 to the Listing Rules.
- (b) Develop the Company's vision, strategy, framework, principles and policies in relation to Key ESG Matters, make relevant recommendations to the Board and implement the policies laid down by the Board.
- (c) Review and monitor the Company's policies, practices and performance in relation to Key ESG Matters to ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and that they are appropriate in the context of the size, business nature and scope of the Company.
- (d) Monitor the key performance indicators and standards set and performance achieved on Key ESG Matters by the Company.
- (e) Assess, review, report and make recommendations, once a year or as and when required, to the Board on the effectiveness of the Company's policies, practices and performance in respect of Key ESG Matters.
- (f) Identify and engage stakeholders to understand and respond to their views by appropriate means.
- (g) Review disclosure on environmental, social and governance matters of the Company whether by way of inclusion in the Company's annual report or a separate report in compliance with Rule 13.91 of the Listing Rules and Appendix 27 to the Listing Rules.

4.7 Others

- a) Undertake such other reviews and projects as may be requested by the Board.
- b) Undertake such other functions and duties as may be required by statute or the Listing Rules, and by such amendments made thereto from time to time.

5. REPORTING

- a) The AC shall report regularly to the Board on the exercise of its duties, and on the outcome of its reviews and discussions with the external auditors and its findings on any suspected fraud or irregularity, or suspected infringement of any Singapore law, the Listing Rules, rules or regulations, which has or is likely to have a material impact on the operating results or financial position of the Company as well as identifying those matters which it considers any necessary action or improvement, and making recommendations as to the step to be taken.
- b) The AC shall, after each Committee meeting, send the Board a report on its findings and recommendations.

6. ATTENDANCE AT GENERAL MEETING

The Chairman (or in his absence, an alternate member) of the AC shall attend the General Meetings of the Company and be prepared to answer questions falling within the scope of the AC.

7. REMUNERATION

Having regard to the functions performed by members of the AC in addition to their functions as Directors in relation to the activities of the AC and pursuant to the specific power conferred upon the Board by the Articles of Association of the Company, members of the AC may be paid such special remuneration in respect of their appointment and in such manner as shall be fixed by the Board.

Amendments to the Terms of Reference shall be submitted to the Audit Committee for consideration and tabled at the Board meeting for approval.

Revised/Approved and adopted by the Audit Committee on 23 February 2016.
